

Vision Document

1. Introduction

History. It's what defines us. We look to our past to better the future. We all learn history in high school and maybe even college, everyone has done their fair share of research papers. I propose to create a website that specializes in British history that focuses on their royal history and provides viewers with facts that is easily understandable.

1.1 Purpose

The purpose of this would be to create a one for all website about Britain's royal history and is easily understandable.

1.2 Solution Overview

The general purpose would be to make research easier. Students of all ages can use this website and read real hard facts of different era's in British Royal History.

1.3 References

2. User Description

2.1 User/Demographics

The target market demographics would be students from elementary school to college. It would also be for anyone interested in history and wanted to learn more.

2.2 User Personas

Types of user would be students from the ages of 10-22.

2.3 User Environment

The amount of people involved in this would vary. The content would be from historians, books, documentaries, etc.

2.4 Key User Needs

This can help with research. Students won't need to search multiple platforms for facts, when it will all be on one place on my site.

3. Stakeholder Description

Project Stakeholder	Degree of Involvement	Product Needs
Students	Students researching	This provides information used for research or for fun

4. Product Overview

4.1 Product Perspective

This product would help the users because it limits the amount of platforms needed for research.

4.2 Product Position Statement

For - Students

Who - Students who need research or would like to learn more about Britain's history

England's History - a site that has facts of Britain's history

That - helps people find more information about a specific topic

4.3 Summary of Capabilities

5. Product Features

5.1 Feature 1

One of the features would be a chat room for those who want to discuss certain things and possibly debate about a historic event.

5.2 Feature 2

Links and pages that bring you to different topics of history.